

Cultural Anthropology

CA-1 Cultural Anthropological Study of Inuit Society in Canada

Nobuhiro KISHIGAMI (National Museum of Ethnology) 127

Title: Cultural Anthropological Study of Inuit Society in CanadaDiscipline: Cultural AnthropologyField leader: Nobuhiro KISHIGAMIInstitution: Department of Advanced Studies in Anthropology, National Museum of EthnologyAddress: 10-1 Senri Expo Park, Suita-City, Osaka 565-8511 JAPANTEL & E-mail: +81-6-6878-8255, inuit@idc.minpaku.ac.jpProgramme: Sharing and Commercial Distribution of Marine Resources by Indigenous PeoplesPrincipal Investigator: Nobuhiro KISHIGAMIProj. Period: 2002 - 2003Institution: Department of Advanced Studies in Anthropology, National Museum of EthnologyCo-research Institution & Scientist (out of JPN): non

Planned field activityInvest. Area: Akulivik, Nunavik (Canada)Field Period: Sep. - Oct. 2002Logistics: Participant observationDescription: [purpose] Inuit Management and Sharing of Marine Resources

[outline] I investigate how the Inuit manage the marine resources and share them with others.

Participants: Nobuhiro Kishigami

Field activity of previous yearInvest. Area:*Field Period:*Logistics:*Description:*Number of participants: