The figure displays a sequence of 30 astronomical images arranged in a 6x5 grid. Each image shows a dark sky with a small, bright comet nucleus and a faint, diffuse coma. The comet's position is marked by a small circle. The images are labeled with a date and time in UT, and the comet's position is marked with a small circle. The comet's path is indicated by a series of small circles, with the label 'S' and 'HUS' appearing in the top right corner of each image.
